IRIS EDUCATION
Reproductive and Sexual health education for health professionals

Moving Ahead: The National Cervical Screening Program Renewal

Saturday 28th October 2017

Queensland Government

Time	Topic	Presenter
8:00 – 8:30	Arrival, registration, coffee
Session 1: The National Cervical Screening Program Renewal Unpacking the evidence. Chair - Dr Caroline Harvey
8:30 – 8:45	Opening address	Qld Health*
8:45 – 9:15	Understanding HPV - Prevalence and patterns - Natural history of infection - Types and consequences	Dr Kay Strom
9:15 – 9:45	HPV vaccination - The first 10 years - Where to next?	Professor Julia Brotherton
9:45 – 10:30	The big picture view of the NCSP renewal	Professor Ian Hammond
10:30– 11:00	MORNING TEA
Session 2: The National Cervical Screening Program Renewal Evidence into practice. Chair- Dr Kay Strom
11:00 – 11:45	The new cervical screening guidelines: - Clinical application in primary care settings - Dealing with women's concerns and questions	Dr Caroline Harvey
11:45 – 12:15	Self-collection option - Pilot study findings - Recommendations	A/Professor Marion Saville
12:15- 12:45	The National Cancer Screening Register (NCSR)	Ms Lauren Barber
12:45- 1:30	LUNCH
Session 3:The National Cervical Screening Program Renewal Putting it all together. Chair- Ms Lisa Peberdy
1:30– 2:15	How the new 2016 Guidelines will help you and your patients- A case based interactive session	Professor Ian Hammond
2:15 – 3: 00	Panel session for Q&A: - Audience questions	Professor Ian Hammond A/Professor Marion Saville Professor Julia Brotherton Dr Caroline Harvey Dr Kay Strom Dr David Papadimos Ms Lauren Barber
3:00- 3:50	NCSP Overview - Resources/Tool Kit - Adoption	National Cervical screening program- TBC*
3:50-4:00	Closing address	Qld Health TBC*

RACGP | QI&CPD 2017–19 Accredited Activity Category 2 | 13 points